"55 by ‘25” is Hawai‘i’s education goal - to have 55% of Hawai‘i’s working age adults hold a two- or four-year degree by the year 2025. Set by the Hawai‘i P-20 Council, the goal aims to increase the educational attainment of Hawai‘i’s residents, to be positioned to compete in a global economy and prepared for jobs of the future. By the year 2020, research indicates that 70% of all jobs available in Hawai‘i will require at least some postsecondary training or education\(^1\).

Preparing Hawai‘i’s Students for Success

Since 2009, the college enrollment rate of Hawai‘i’s public high school students has increased by six percentage points. This College and Career Readiness Indicators (CCRI) report provides a detailed look at what is taking place in high schools statewide and what happens once students enter college. With this information, more of Hawai‘i’s students can be placed on track to earn their college degree on time, bringing our state closer to achieving its 55 by ‘25 education goal.

The College and Career Readiness Indicators report is an annual collaboration between the Hawai‘i State Department of Education and the University of Hawai‘i System, and is coordinated by Hawai‘i P-20 Partnerships for Education. Hawai‘i P-20 publishes this report each spring for the previous year’s graduating class. Additional report measures are expected to be added as data become available.
